

TMR headed to Prague

DEMÄNOVSKÁ DOLINA (4th of October 2012) – Shares of Tatry mountain resorts, a.s. (TMR) were admitted for trading on the Stock Exchange in Prague.

TMR were successfully accepted for trading on the Stock exchange in Prague (PSE). The stock exchange committee for PSE listing has decided so on the 1st of October 2012. The TMR shares with an issuing volume of 6 707 198 shares were admitted for trading on the main exchange market.

Trading itself should start the 22nd of October 2012

One of the primary reasons of the TMR dual listing on the Prague stock exchange is building a position on the Czech capital market and following the usage of synergy in the marketing campaign aimed at the Czech market. Czechs are one of the biggest segments of the TMR market and therefore the company would like to offer them the advantages of the shareholder's club. The club is offering many benefits in the form of entries and discounts in the TMR resorts in High and Low Tatras. You just need to own 25 TMR shares to become a member of the shareholder's club.

The company is still interested in dual listing on the Warsaw Stock Exchange. In case of acceptance, the main market in Warsaw should begin trading already from the 15th of October 2012.

The shareholders of Tatry mountain resorts, a.s. accepted the intension of dual listing of the TMR shares on the Stock Exchange in Prague and Warsaw on the General Assembly held on the 21st of April 2012 in Tatranska Lomnica.
